College of Fine Arts and Communication

Research and Grant Checklist (AY2024-2025)

| Preparing for grants                                         |                                                                   |
|--------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Set up a funding alert for topics you're interested          | SPIN SPIN Database                                                |
| in. The SPIN database will send you new funding              | Further details are here .                                 |
| opportunities related to your area(s) of interest.           | For help, contact Scholarly Communication Services at             |
|                                                              | SCHOLARLYCOMM@ECU.EDU.                                            |
| Complete the Foreign Influence Training in CITI              | Details are here                                           |
| (required for anyone submitting or participating in          | The module is in CITI . Click on my courses, click on East |
| federal grants).                                             | Carolina – View Courses, click on Learner Tools, click            |
|                                                              | on Add Course, mark yes for Undue Foreign Influence               |
|                                                              | course.                                                           |
| Set up an account in DMPTool and familiarize                 | DMPTool                                                           |
| yourself with the resource—funders are                       | For assistance, contact Anna Peitzman, Research Data              |
| increasingly requiring data management plans for             | Specialist peitzmana22@ecu.edu                                    |
| grant applications                                           |                                                                   |
| Set up an NCBI account. Federal Funders (NIH and             | SciENcv                                                           |
| NSF) increasingly use NCBI for biosketches                   | For help, contact Scholarly Communication Services at             |
|                                                              | SCHOLARLYCOMM@ECU.EDU                                             |
| Add your ZIP+4 to your address in PiratePort so it           | Instructions are here                                      |
| correctly populates in proposals in eTRACS.                  |                                                                   |
| Start your grant proposal in eTRACS                          | Login to eTRACS here                                       |
| Conflict of interest forms and external professional activit | ies for pay reporting                                             |
| If you intend to be paid by any external parties,            | External Professional Activities for Pay forms                    |
| submit information related to those activities               |                                                                   |
| Complete conflict of interest forms for the                  | Submit your annual COI forms                               |
| university                                                   |                                                                   |
| Prepare for Research—Human Subjects Research                 |                                                                   |
| Register in ECU's ePIRATE IRB system using the        | Further instructions are here .                            |
| ECU single sign on credentials.                              |                                                                   |
|                                                              |                                                                   |
| Import/update your CITI Training to ECU's                    | Details are here .                                         |
| systems.                                                     |                                                                   |
|                                                              |                                                                   |
| Update your CITI training information in your                | Instructions are here                                      |
| ePIRATE profile in the IRB system.                           |                                                                   |
| Locate or request software needed for research and teach     |                                                                   |
| ITCS provides access to statistical and research             | Find our research software , download, and install from    |
| computing software via its download center                   | ITCS.                                                             |
|                                                              |                                                                   |
| Review university support and training for faculty research  | hers—consider making appointments with individuals                |
| referenced here                                              |                                                                   |
| Writing support is available through the ECU                 | a. Writing Center faculty services .                       |
| Writing Center, which offers individual                      | b. Laupus Library Professional Writing                            |
| consultations, Writing Accountability Groups, and            | Consultations (during academic year).                             |
| Critical Friends events (which provide constructive          | Note that while materials say these are                           |
| feedback on grant writing)                                   | only available to certain colleges, HHP                           |
|                                                              | faculty are eligible to receive these                             |
|                                                              | services if their work is related to health.                      |
|                                                              | SCIVICES II LITEII WOLK IS I CIALEU LU HEAILII.                   |

|                                                                                                                            | Professional development                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | Make sure you are following the trainings of Office for                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |  |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
|                                                                                                                            | ·                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Faculty Excellence.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |  |
| And, get ready for it, here are some – but not all – research-related policies that would be helpful to know and reference |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |  |
|                                                                                                                            | ECU Faculty Manual guidance on Research                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Understand Part VII, Section II: Faculty Research and Scholarship.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |  |
|                                                                                                                            | Guidance on storage of sensitive data at ECU                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | ITCS Sensitive Data Storage and Transmission Guidelines for Protecting Sensitive Data                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |
|                                                                                                                            | Retention and Disposition Schedules for Grants and Research Records—UNC System                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | UNC System Grants and Research Records Retention and Disposition Requirements (Standard 6: p. 35-38).                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |
| Set ι                                                                                                                      | Set up or transfer scholarly research profiles                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |  |
|                                                                                                                            | Set up your faculty profile                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Set up your Scholars @ ECU faculty profile. Log into Faculty180, select profile, select Public Display Master Agreement, authorize the faculty profile. You can then update your information for your profile. You will need to upload your new purple photo (see next item). For good examples, see Dr. Emily Yeager and Dr. Nick Broskey |  |
|                                                                                                                            | Get a professional headshot photo from ECU Communications on a purple background.                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | E-mail photographer Rhett Butler for an appointment: butlerjo17@ecu.edu.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |  |
|                                                                                                                            | Register for or update your ORCiD—ORCiD is currently the only scholarly identifier that meets standards outlined in recent government requirements for persistent identifiers for individual researchers applying for grants. It also facilitates publisher processes for many established publishers | Instructions are here .                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |  |